Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Prof. George A. Eaton has been appointed by the college entrance examination board as supervisor for the state. The examinations will be held in this city June 13 to 24.

There will be a meeting tomorrow at 8 p. m. at Van Sant & Chamberlain's store, 31 Main street, in furtherance of the organization of a Young Woman's Christian association.

O. C. Richardson has returned from the south with an enormous tarantula which he captured at Laguna, 20 miles from Eureka, and which is now exhibited in one of the city drug stores.

Another sizeable real estate sale was consummated last evening, when James Chinaman bought the old Jewish synagogue property, corner of First West and Third South streets, from the Utah Savings & Trust company, for $24,000, or $150 per front foot, for $24,000 rods.

Bad spelling in the records of the Westminster Presbyterian church necessitated a special meeting of the church board last evening, when the title "Westminster" was changed throughout the records to "Westminster," the superfluous "l" being omitted.

R. L. Pritchard has gone to New York to be absent several weeks, and his friends whisper that he "will not return." Consequently, generous stores of rice are being laid in for active distribution in the not distant future, and white ribbon "rivers" are being prepared.

The network of tracks at the intersection of E and South Temple streets is being lowered to connect with the new track from the west. The installation of substantial poles for trolley wire supports in place of the poles at the center of the street, will be made to Seventh East street, and later to Tenth East street.

Food Inspector J. J. Meyer has discovered an attempt by Omaha packers to unload on Salt Lake dealers a lot of condemned hams and bacon which had been rejected by Denver dealers. It is charged the packers then put on other labels and shipped the goods to this city, but only to be turned down once more. The shippers may try the army commissary now, with better hope of success.

It is believed now that the speculation of Joseph McKenna, the missing bookkeeper of Joseph Derichs, will reach $50,000, as it is discovered that he has been using his employer's checks for the last 10 months, and not a few of the forged checks were destroyed on their return from the bank. It is also believed that McKenna padded the payrolls and pocketed the money "paid" to faithful employees. The over-enterprising McKenna has not been located as yet, but "the police are in hot pursuit."

Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Co. has on deposit over three and one half million dollars. If you have not an account, open one of any amount, $1 or more. Joe F. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

G. S. Martin Coal Co. Rock Springs, Cumberland, Castle Gate and Clear Creek lump, nut and slack.

Bennett Glass & Paint Co. at 67 West 1st South, are giving away Japanese lac.

HIT BY MOTOR CAR. Mrs. Elizabeth Brown Narrowly Escapes Serious Injury.

What for a notorious automobile accident, occurred last night on East Temple street near Second South. Mrs. Elizabeth Brown of 325 Seventh East street, slipped backwards out of a street car and alighted immediately in front of an approaching automobile driven by Dr. R. B. Brown. The doctor was driving his car very slowly at the time, and by turning quickly avoided striking the old lady with the wheels of the machine. However, she was caught by the mud tender and thrown to the ground. Dr. Brown picked her up and conveyed her to a drug store, where she soon regained her composure. It having developed that no serious injury had been inflicted, she was driven to her home by the doctor.

Mrs. Brown was injured in a street car accident about five years ago.

Dear friends—I have solved the mother-in-law problem, just give me regularly Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It will make her healthy, happy and docile as a lamb. Inform her of the fact. Ask your druggist.

TO BE BROUGHT BACK. Man Who Deserted His Family Will be Called to Account.

Requisition papers have been secured by County Atty. Christensen for the return to this state of Fred Bean, a young back driver who recently deserted his wife and baby and was arrested in Hoxbury, Ida. Bean was married a little over a year ago and soon after their child was born he abandoned his wife and she has been dependent upon her relatives for support. County Atty. Christensen states that he will prosecute the fellow and see if he can't compel him to support his family.

A Good Family Liniment. Every family should be supplied with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For cuts, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries, which are of frequent occurrence, there is nothing so good. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment. As it is an antiseptic all danger from blood-poisoning is avoided. Sold by all druggists.

Ask your grocer for Royal Bread.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Theater tonight John Drew will give his famous performance of "The Duke of Killecrankie." He brings his own New York company, the prominent members in which are Miss Margaret Dale, Miss Fannie Brough, and Ferdinand Gottschalk. The engagement lasts three nights and a Saturday matinee.

Almost like a page out of Fairyland is a performance of the Lilliputians. Tiny little children, hardly away from the cradle, went through the lines of H. M. S. Pinocchio in grand theater yesterday afternoon, and of "The Runaway Girl" last night. Both plays do not allow for a moment of dullness or hesitation, but have a pace from curtain to curtain, and demand a close attention to cues and stage business. In their handling of the pieces the Lilliputians surprised most of the audience by seeming to do everything but stammer as finished as regular professional players. The performances were entertaining in the extreme, and the performance went through their roles like little old men and women, with never a suggestion of freakishness or childishness of manner. The best singer in the company is undoubtedly Master Fred Pollard, whose numbers were heartily cheered in the performances of yesterday, while in point of acting there are half a dozen "stars" who are each winning many favorites.

"The Runaway Girl" will be repeated tonight. At tomorrow's matinee "An American Millionaire" will be the bill, the engagement concluding with "A Gaiety Girl" tomorrow evening.

GRAND THEATER CHANGES.

Jones and Hammer Lease the House to Denver People.

The long talked of deal between the Curtis theater management of Denver and the Grand theater management of Salt Lake has at length been consummated. As a result, Messrs. Jones & Hammer step out of the Grand and Messrs. Pelton & Smutzer step in. Mr. Pelton is president and manager of the Grand Theater company, and Mr. Smutzer its secretary. The lease is dated May 1, 1904, which means that the recent engagements have been played under the new management. Under the contract with the owners of the land, the Alwood estate, the amusement company which owns the theater has nine more years of life. At the end of that time the property reverts to the owners of the real estate. It is for this nine years that the Denver people have taken over the property. It is stated that they paid Jones & Hammer $51,500, due in installments.

Mr. Pelton said to a "News" representative yesterday that the Salt Lake theater would be run in conjunction with their Denver theater and several other concerns which they expect to control in Wyoming and Colorado. Only popular priced attractions will be presented, and these will be on the lines of straight melodrama. The price will be reduced to run from 15 to 50 cents.

During the summer the theater will be renovated and redecorated throughout so that everything will be in ship shape for a successful opening in the fall.

F. L. Hammer, who has occupied the place of treasurer in the Grand for a long time past, is to be the local manager. The retiring managers, Messrs. Jones & Hammer, will devote their time to the management of the theater and the Grand, publication of which they retain. Mr. Pelton said yesterday that he had every confidence that Salt Lake was on the verge of a great era of prosperity and he felt confident that no mistake had been made in linking the fortunes of the house to those of the Denver chain.

It will wash and not rub off. This complexion will envy me. It's no secret so I'll tell. Take thou Rocky Mountain Tea. Ask your druggist.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Yesterday Miss Josephine Morris and Mr. George Arnold Goff were married, the ceremony being performed in the Temple, and a reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. A. Brown. The rooms were prettily decorated in white and green, and the bride wore a gown of champagne crepe over silk, with lace trimmings and carried flowers. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Elias Morris, Mrs. Goff, Mrs. N. V. Jones, and Mrs. J. F. Barker. The groom was served by Miss Della Littner. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents. After the reception they left for Bingham Junction, the groom's home.

Mrs. Thomas Marionous entertained at a pretty luncheon yesterday.

Miss Lena Welby is home from Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moore entertained at high tea last night in honor of Miss Gertrude Mayer whose wedding takes place in the near future. The decorations were in the chosen bridal colors, pink and white, and were most artistic. About a dozen guests enjoyed the event.

Mrs. Frank Morrow was hostess at a delightful affair yesterday at the post, given in honor of Mrs. P. B. Tower. The amusement was bridge, and six tables were played. The decorations were of white flowers, and the scores and talks in Japanese design.

Mrs. E. W. Wilson who is soon to leave for the coast was guest of honor at an informal luncheon yesterday given by Mrs. Charles Swift, the table being most effectively adorned in green and white. Covers were laid for six.

Last night a most enjoyable time was spent at the home of A. M. Musser, given by the Theological class of the First Presbyterian church, in honor of Miss Gertrude Musser, one of the young teachers. It was the form of a "tin house surprise." Games suitable for the occasion were arranged in songs and music were a pleasing feature. Dainty refreshments were served during which toasts were given, John C. Duncan acting as toast master. Supper, John Vetterl held a high tribute to the June bride, for her faithfulness in the Sunday school cause. At 11:30 p. m. "Home Sweet Home" was sung by the guests, ending the pleasant evening.

FOR VISITING ANGELS.

Commercial Club Prepares to Show Them a Good Time.

The board of governors of the Commercial club met yesterday afternoon, to discuss plans for the entertainment of the Los Angeles visitors to this city on June 12. The principal features agreed upon include a trip about the city, a band concert at Fort Douglas, a reception at the Commercial club, a visit to the Bingham mines and smelters, a trip to the lake and a concert in the Tabernacle.

A committee of 20 members of the club will go to California to meet the visitors, escort them to this city, and after a short rest and informal welcome, six special cars will be in readiness to take them around the city, with expert lecturers and a dozen members of the club to explain things. A special train with dining car attached will take the visitors on the morning of June 13 to Bingham, with a committee of 24 riding men to pilot the pilgrims through the great mining country. At Bingham the Murray smelters will be visited, and the evening's entertainment, Prof. Stephens and McCallan are preparing a program of lectures to be given in the Tabernacle, in honor of the Los Angeles people. The festivities are to conclude with a day at the lake, with music, dancing and an entertaining feature. The reception committee of 109 will give their undivided attention to this part of the program.

GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT.

Farmers and All Interested to be Invited to the Convention.

The Good Roads committee of the Commercial club will issue 5,000 circular letters to farmers and other parties who ought to be interested in good roads in this state and urging their attendance at the state convention to be held in Assembly hall, June 2 and 3. Moreover, handbills advertising special rates to the convention will be sent to all the railroad stations in the state. The committee will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Commercial club rooms, and hurry up the program.

WARMLY WELCOMED.

Bishop Carroll and Party Royally Entertained at All Hallows.

Bishop John F. Carroll of Helena was given a royal welcome at All Hallows college yesterday. He was accompanied by Rector J. J. Callahan of the Sacred Heart church at Butte, and Vicar General Cummings of the diocese of Cheyenne. The party was met at the college by the band of the institution playing lively airs, and a students' committee presented the visitors with bouquets. The entrance was decorated with American and Irish flags, while over the gate was festooned "Welcome to All Hallows College," and over the doorway was the motto, "In Sanctitate et Justitia," which appears on the bishop's seal. After the presentation of flowers, Cadet John Dillon of Leadville made an address of welcome. The party were entertained all night by the band, and the faculty of the college, reviewed the cadets, inspected the buildings, and were treated to a drive about the city. They all left for the north last night.

A Good Suggestion. Mr. C. H. Wainwright of Logan City, Pa., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water, but as it can be taken when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. It seems to get at the right spot instantly, he says. For sale by all druggists.

Strength and Endurance. Are factors of the greatest success. No person can do full justice to himself without them. In no season of the year are they more easily exhausted than in the spring.

We need not discuss the reason for this. It is enough to say there is one, and that, Hood's Sarsaparilla gives strength and endurance, as thousands annually testify.
